

Feel Good Stories

Readers Share Their Reading Experience

"When I turned 70, last November, I felt old for the first time. However, after reading Bernice Becker's book Feel Good Stories, I felt much younger. She proves that even at 84 you can write books, be a clown, and love life and that age is just a number. And, her book made me feel good."

"Bernice writes about her memories in an easy to read format that is guaranteed to bring enjoyment to her readers. She talks about the triumphs and the joys of her childhood years while working in practical tips on how to improve your own life."

"More than a stroll down Memory Lane, Bernice Becker takes us down the path of an enchanted life. She shares her struggles and triumphs as well as the importance of family, friends, food, a good pair of shoes, and feeling confident about oneself. In addition, Bernice gives us all the opportunity to review our personal enchanted journeys, helping us write our very own feel good stories."

"As you read through the stories in this collection, you will have an uplifting and joyful experience that you will want to go through over and over again and share with your loved ones."

"Stories with wonder--a rich magical journey starting with Bernice's birth that intrigued me so much I wanted to read on and out loud to my children. I leapt with joy, as each story touched my soul. Thank you Bernice for sharing your memories with such inner clarity."
